

Africa CoP Learning Lab on Public Financial Management (PFM)

Program Overview

The Learning Lab is designed as a progressive learning journey to help partners navigate PFM systems, identify strategic entry points, and institutionalise systems change. Each session is 90 minutes (09:00 – 10:30 GMT).

Session Schedule & Outcomes

Date	Sessions	Outcomes
12/02/2026	Session One: Mapping the PFM System and Power Landscape  Resource Facilitator: Bajeti Hub	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand political economy dynamics shaping Public Financial Management (PFM) systems</li> <li>• Map national PFM ecosystems in different contexts and countries.</li> </ul>
12/03/2026	Session Two: Strategic Entry Points for Influence and Accountability  Resource Facilitator: IBP- Nigeria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Present and reflect on mapped PFM ecosystems</li> <li>• Identify and prioritise strategic entry points across the budget cycle</li> <li>• Analyse leverage points for influence, accountability, and citizen participation within PFM processes</li> </ul>
09/04/2026	Session Three: Mapping Systems Change Work Against the PFM Process  Resource Facilitator: Bajeti Hub and IBP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assess alignment between existing systems change strategies and PFM processes</li> <li>• Identify gaps, misalignments, and opportunities for strategic adjustment</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Define concrete actions to engage the right actors at the right stages of the PFM cycle</li> <li>• Apply learning through case studies and case clinics in session</li> </ul>
14/05/2026	Session Four:  From Strategy to Organisational Practice and Sustainability Resource Facilitator:  Bajeti Hub and IBP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assess organisational readiness for sustained PFM engagement</li> <li>• Reflect and learn through country-specific peer groups</li> <li>• Develop a high-level, context-specific action plan for sustained and institutionalised influence</li> </ul>

Participation Notes

- Continuity: As this is a progressive journey, we encourage the same team members to attend all four sessions.
- Platform: Links for the virtual sessions will be provided via the calendar invitations.
- Materials: All session slides and resource tools will be shared following each meeting.